From the Harlem Courant, dated September 10.

Madrid, Auguſt 18.

THE King having ſent for the Duke of Medina Celi, had a long Conference with him, and declar'd to him his Intention, that he ſhould write to his Stewards and others, who have the care of his Eſtates in Catalonia, not to ſuffer any of his Subjects to give the leaſt Aſſiſtance to the Malecontents of Vick, and to hinder them from taking up Arms and joyning them. The Duke wrote accordingly before he went out of the Palace, and his Letters were immediately diſpatch'd away by an Expreſs to Catalonia: He offer'd to go thither in Perſon, but the King would not permit him. His Majeſty has reſolv'd to demand 400 young Men of the Kingdom of Arragon, to fill up the number of his Guards. The Marſhal de Teſſe preſſes the Court very hard to furniſh Money to recruit the Spaniſh Infantry: The Sums that were deſign'd for that Service, have been expended to pay the Troops that are on Foot, thereby to prevent their farther Ruin. The Provinces did indeed promiſe to furniſh the Recruits, but they have hitherto ſent in ſo few, that there are ſcarce enough to compleat 5 or 6 Battalions. We are in daily Expectation to hear that the Enemy has laid Siege to Badajox. Marſhal Teſſe will ſoon be going to Caſerez, the Head-Quarters of the Army. Monſieur de Ronquillo will have a ſmall Body of Men to obſerve the Enemies Motions in the Province of Beira. The Marquis de Legal is march'd out of Ciudad Rodrigo, with 3 Regiments of Horſe and ſome Companies of Granadiers, as 'tis given out, to put in Execution ſome Deſign in Portugal. Some Horſes are ſent towards Roſes and Tarragona to remount the Cavalry in thoſe Parts. The Effects the Marquiſs Grillo left in this Kingdom are ſeiz'd and confiſcated for the Uſe of the War. A ſtop is put to the Payment of moſt Penſions; and the Queen Dowager has not receiv'd any thing for a long time. The King has order'd that all the Priſoners who are here in Cuſtody, and accus'd of Treaſon, Rebellion, or holding Intelligence with the Enemy, ſhall be try'd this Week. Don Franciſco Velaſco, otherwiſe call'd Grupey, who was ſeiz'd at Cadiz, and accus'd of correſponding with the Enemy, is beheaded there.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated September 8.

Madrid, Auguſt 19. The Bull which the King deſir'd of the Pope, to give him leave to try ſome Prieſts and Perſons belonging to the Church, who were either the Chiefs or Accomplices of the Conſpiracies that have been diſcover'd at Granada and elſewhere, was addreſs'd to Cardinal Portocarero, who has nominated ſome Eccleſiaſticks to judge thoſe Affairs jointly with the Civil Magiſtrates. The new Levies and Recruits go on with all the Succeſs that can be deſir'd, inſomuch that we hope to have for the Autumn Campaign our 40000 Men compleat, to act againſt Portugal. The Rendezvous of the Army is appointed at Caſerez near Badajox, for which Place the Marſhal de Teſſe ſet out laſt Night, to viſit the Magazines and Poſts on the Frontiers, from whence we hear that the Portugueſe are getting together vaſt Quantities of Ammunition and Proviſions, giving out that theſe Preparations are deſign'd for the Siege of Badajox; but we value not their Threats. They write from Almaden, that through the Care and Diligence of their Governour don Miguel de Unda, there has been diſcover'd there a new and very plentiful Mine of Quick-ſilver. Our Letters from Oran of the 30th of laſt Month ſay, That don Carlos Caraffa, Governour and Captain General of the Coaſt, having Advice that a great Company of Moors in Arms were come within a Day's March of the Town, to diſturb the other Moors in their Harveſt, ſally'd out with a Detachment of the Horſe and Foot of his Garriſon, defeated them, kill'd and wounded a good number, and took 271 Priſoners, whom he brought back with him into the Town.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated September 11.

Madrid, Auguſt 21. Marſhal de Teſſe is on his Departure for the Frontiers, whither there has been lately ſent a certain Quantity of Cloaths and Arms, ſufficient to equip 35000 Men: they are deſign'd for the Spaniſh Troops, who without them are not in a Condition of marching: the Preparatives for the Campaign are carry'd on with great diligence, and we hear that the Troops are already beginning to move. The 17th, Prince Tſerclas de Tilly firſt put on his Hat in the King's Preſence, in Quality of a Grandee of Spain: The Court of Juſtice at Caſtille is preparing to bring on the Trial of ſome Perſons who were taken into Cuſtody ſome time ago, upon ſuſpicion of holding Intelligence with the Enemy. Orders are given for ſome Troops to march from Arragon and Navarre to Catalonia. They write from Cadiz, that 4 Veſſels were to ſail from thence in order to cruiſe on the Coaſts of Portugal: And that a Maſter of a Bark had been put to Death, for having taken Money to carry to Gibraltar a Knight of the Order of St. James, who was ſince beheaded.

Placentia, Auguſt 19. Since Yeſterday all our Troops have begun to move towards the Tagus, according to the Orders they had receiv'd from the Marſhal de Teſſe, who is every Day expected here. The Enemy ſeem to have a Deſign upon Badajox, which our General hopes to prevent. Our Troops are to be diſpos'd ſo within reach of one another, that they may draw together at Merida, as ſoon as as we hear that the Enemies Army is beginning to march. All our Advices from them agree, that they are to Rendezvous near Eſtremos the 25th or 30th of this Month, though the Heats are ſtill very violent. Some Advices from Lisbon ſay, that when King Charles III. went from thence, his Equipage was ſold; and that all the Militia of the Kingdom had Orders to repair by the 20th, to the Rendezvous of the Army.

From the Paris Gazette, dated September 12.

Madrid, Auguſt 28. The King has given the Title of a Marquiſs of the Kingdom of Navarre to Major General Don Joſeph de Armendariz in Conſideration of his Services. They write from Cadiz that the Sieur de Aira has taken a new-built Dutch Veſſel of 42 Guns and 78 Men. She was going from Lisbon to Venice, and is valu'd at 50000 Crowns.

From the Harlem Courant, dated September 12.

Paris, September 7. They write from Spain, that the Enemy are march'd out of their Quarters to draw together near Eſtremos, and then to beſiege Badajox, the Government of which Place is given to the Marquiſs of Canales, Marſhal de Camp.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated September 17.

Madrid, Auguſt 28. Don Joſeph de Salazar ſet out from hence Yeſterday with many other Officers, and 100 of the Life-Guard, for the Kingdom or Province of Valencia. To day, they were follow'd by 300 Men of the new rais'd Regiment of Catalonians, who were quarter'd hereabouts: And orders are ſent to all the Troops that are in Arragon and the other bordering Provinces, to march thither likewiſe, that the Whole may form a good Body of Men to go to the Relief of Catalonia. We hear from Saragoſſa, that 10000 Muskets and great ſtore of other Arms have been lately brought thither from Bayonne in France. The new Levies are carry'd on through the whole Kingdom with all poſſible Diligence. They write from Badajox, that the Portugueſe ſtill threaten to beſiege that Place; nay, that their Troops and thoſe of their Allies were already march'd out from their Quarters of Refreſhment: That above 10000 of them were arriv'd at Eſtremos, which is the Place of their general Rendezvous; and that ſome of their heavy Artillery were already come to Elvas. Meanwhile we have likewiſe receiv'd Advice, That all the Spaniſh and French Horſe, who were in Quarters of Refreſhment on the Frontiers of Portugal, paſs'd the Tagus the 18th of this Month, going to Merida, and from thence to Badajox, with deſign to cover the laſt of thoſe Places. That to morrow or the day after, the Infantry of the 2 Crowns, which is to be employ'd on that ſide, will arrive between the Tagus and the Guadiana; and, That the Garriſon of Badajox has been augmented to 3500 Men, all of them of the Troops of Spain. The Marſhal de Teſſe, who went from hence lately, arriv'd at Cazeres the 24th Inſtant, and immediately caus'd the Troops of the 2 Crowns to retake the Field, in order to obſerve the Motions of thoſe of Portugal, and its Allies.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated September 18.

Madrid, Auguſt 28. The Troops of the King's Houſhold are to conſiſt of 4 Troops of Horſe-Guards, of 200 Men each Troop, and of 3 Regiments of Foot-Guards, the 1ſt to be compos'd of Spaniards, the 2d of Flamands, and the 3d of Italians; each Regiment is to conſiſt of 4 Battalions, which will make in all 156 Companies, and amount to 7800 Men. His Majeſty will have beſides 4 Regiments of Dragoons, of 3 Squadrons each; 12 Regiments of Horſe, of the like ſtrength, and 24 Regiments of Foot. There is coming from France a ſufficient Quantity of Arms and Cloaths for 22000 Men.
